O Apollon Limassol FC is a sports club based in Limassol, Cyprus. The club allowed us to enter the world of sports in Limassol, which allowed us to enter the world of sports in Cyprus.

The city of Limassol was historically a meeting place for Greeks, Turks and Cypriots, creating a multicultural and rich environment for this time.

Founded in 1954, Apollon Limassol FC became one of the most traditional and successful sports clubs in Cyprus, promoting football, basketball and volleyball.

In view of the rich historical and cultural heritage of Limassol, this club united the community and inspired a better understanding and respect between citizens, breaking down barriers and stereotypes born from the colonial past. The club represents the city with pride and commitment, aiming to beautify and support the city, as well as increase its visibility through sports successes.

Despite the long years, the most notable moment of Apollon Limassol FC was the victory of the Cyprus Cup in 1956, where they defeated AEL Limassol in the first encounter due to the conflicts of the Cypriot League, and their success of turning the table became a sensation and exemplified national pride, mental and leadership.
